
The Yearning for Jerusalem - Ain LeTzion Tzofia

Our mothers carried the weight of the journey while holding on to the promise that one day we would reach Jerusalem. Ain LeTzion Tzofia expresses our longing and hope for Zion.

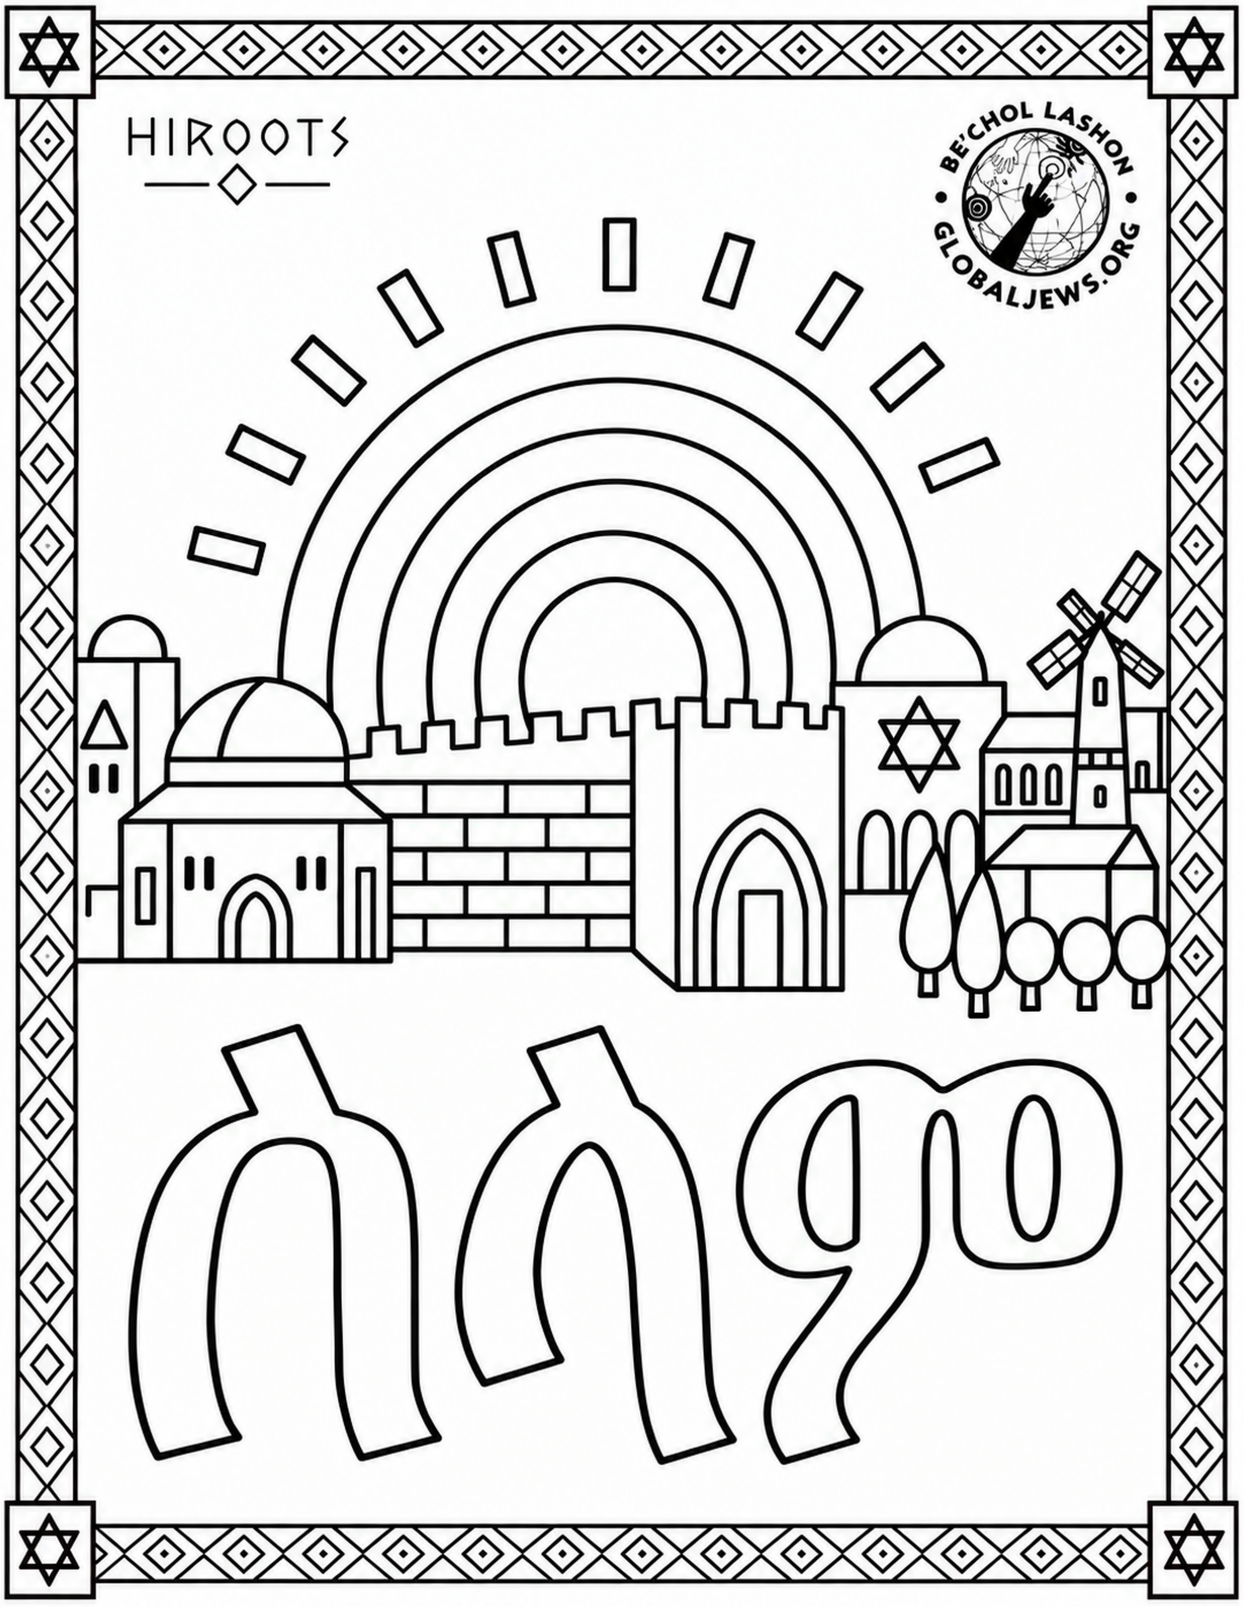
Sifet - The Traditional Basket

The Sifet is a traditional Ethiopian basket made by skilled women using beautiful patterns and weaving techniques. It represents creativity and traditions passed down through generations.

Bunna - The Coffee Ceremony

The Bunna ceremony is one of the most important traditions in Ethiopian culture. Sharing coffee brings family and friends together to connect and celebrate community.

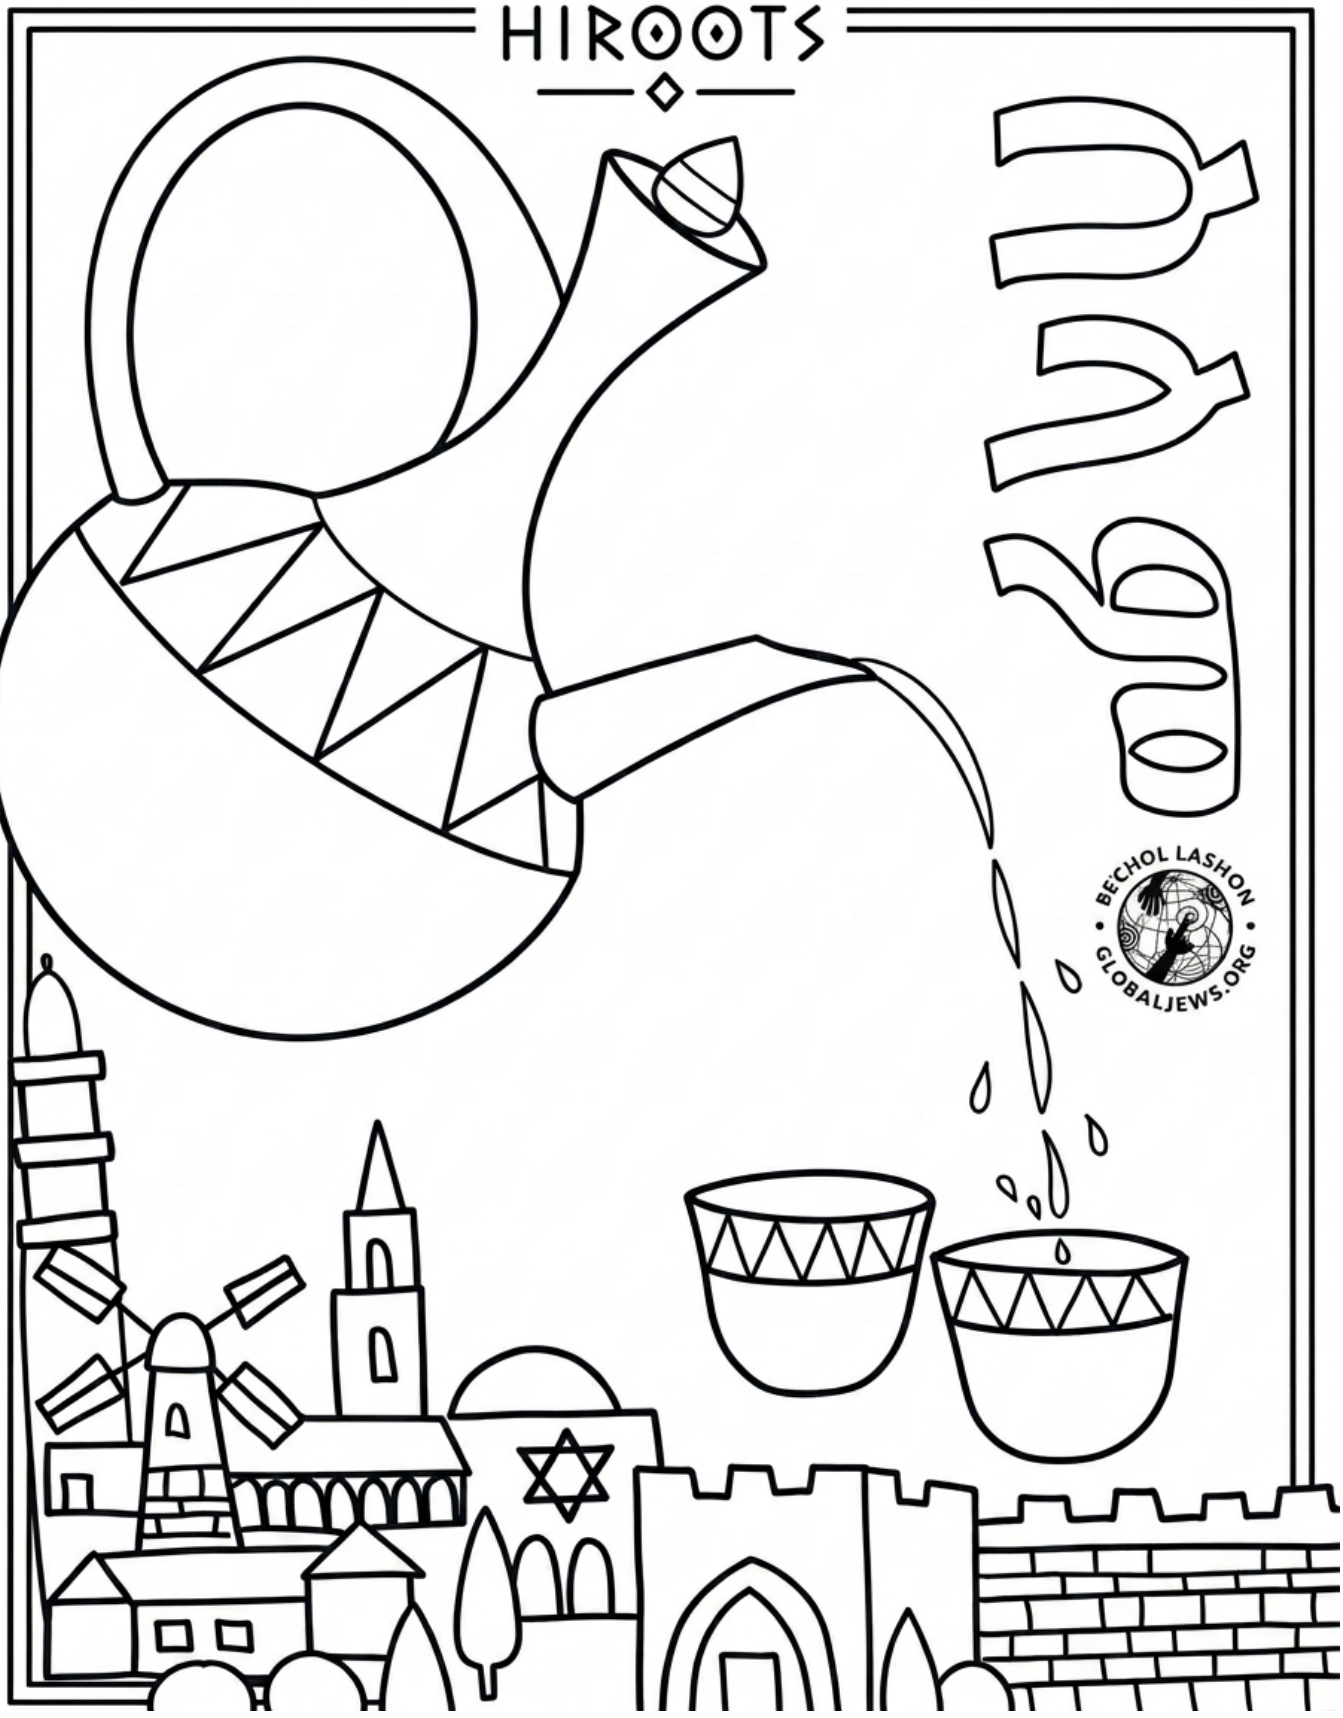
The Amharic word shown on this page is Selam, which means peace.



Jerusalem - The Land of Milk and Honey

For thousands of years, Beta Israel dreamed of Jerusalem and the Land of Milk and Honey. This image honors the deep connection between the Ethiopian Jewish community and the Holy Land.

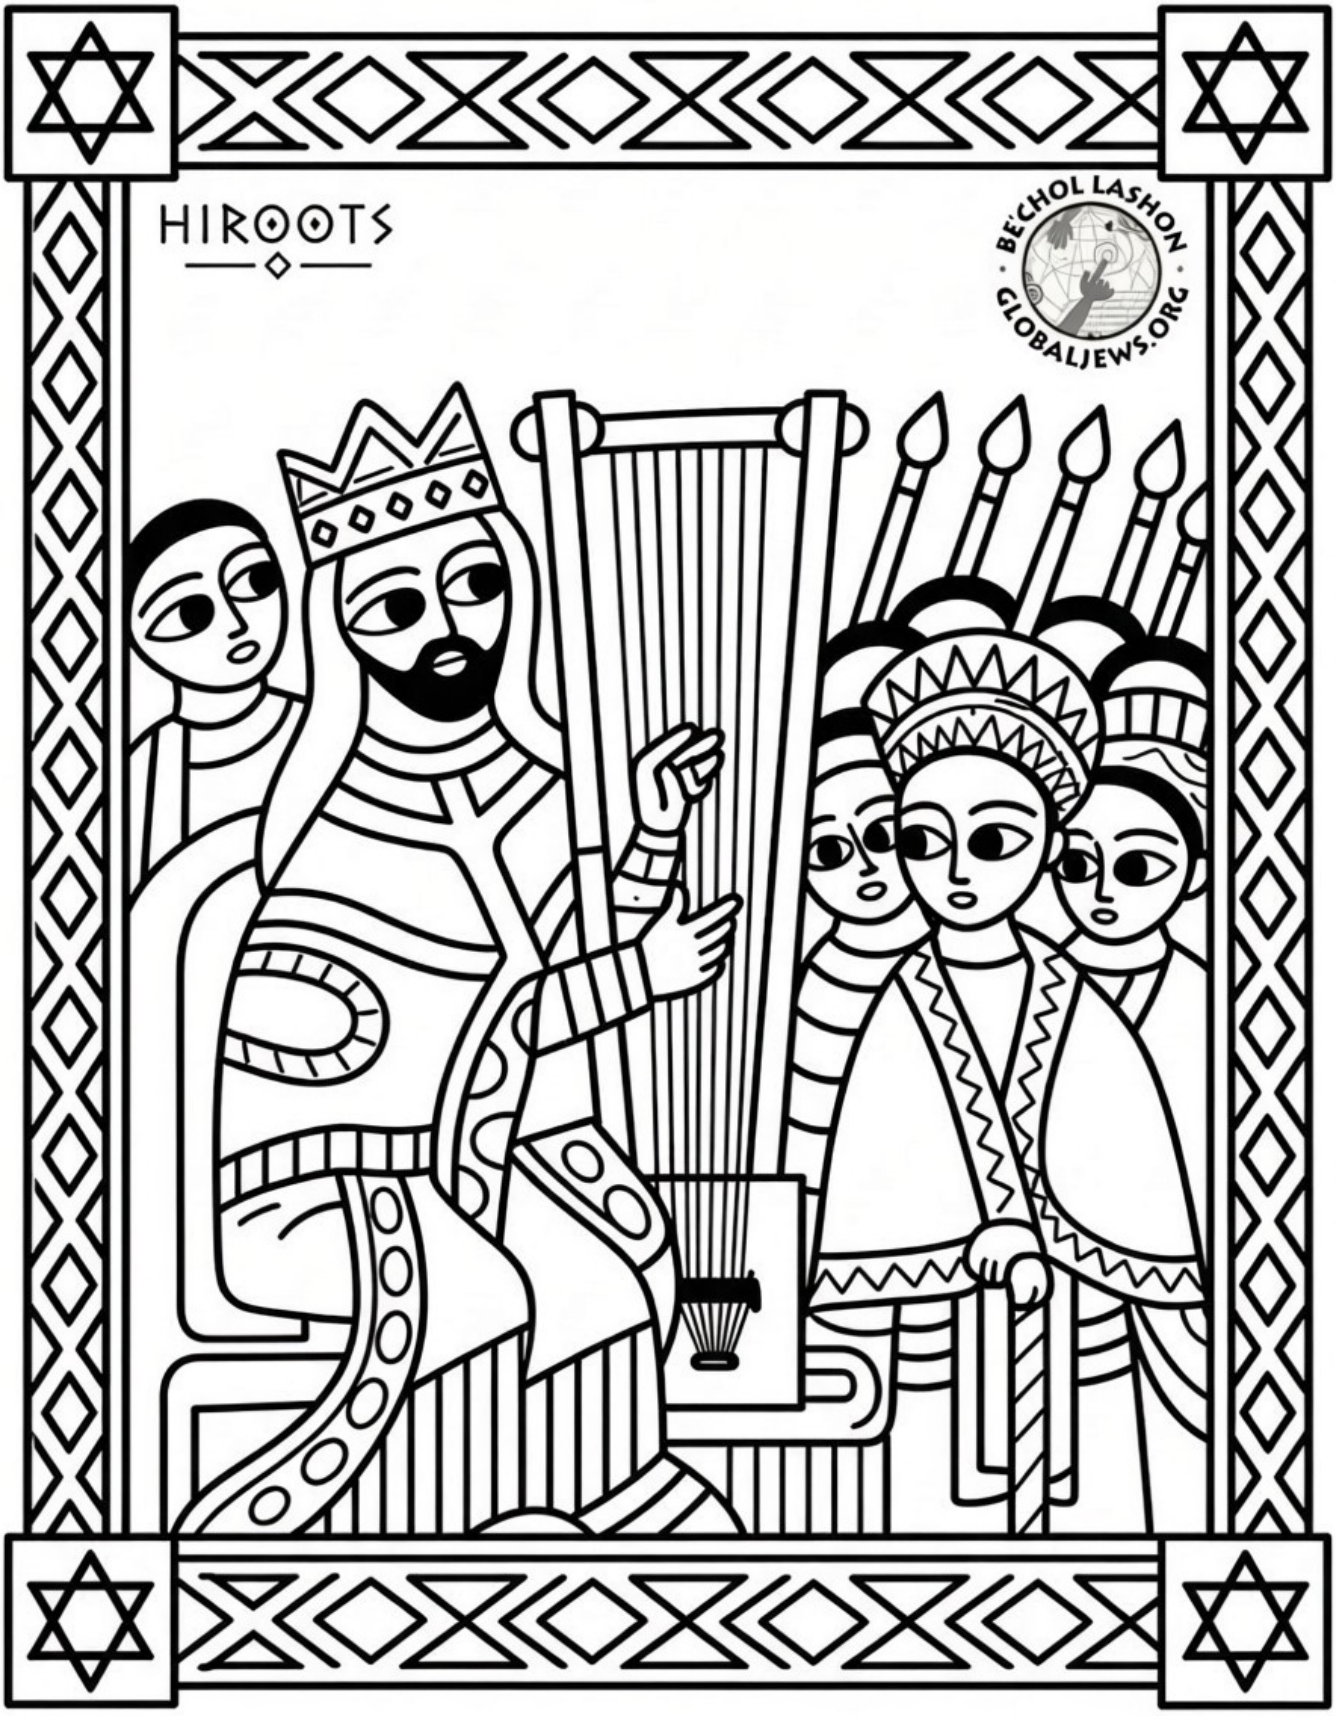
The Amharic word shown on this page is Selam, which means peace.



Together in the Land of Milk and Honey

One day, we will sit together in the Land of Milk and Honey, sharing bunna, the Amharic word for coffee. This image celebrates our dream of unity, belonging, and hope.

The Amharic word shown on this page is Selam, which means peace.



King and Queen - A Royal Heritage

The king and queen celebrate the dignity, strength, and rich heritage of Ethiopian history. Their image honors identity, pride, and cultural tradition.