Ameh

(inspired by the Abayudaya Jews of Uganda)

Am-eh am-eh am-eh Yis-ra-el-eh chai

Am-eh am-eh am-eh Yis-ra-el-eh chai

O--oh--od-eh A-vi-nu chai

O--oh--od-eh A-vi-nu chai

Hebrew meaning: The Jewish people lives! Our God yet lives!

In Luganda, a native dialect of Uganda, a vowel sound is often added to the end of words that normally end in a consonant. The Abayudaya have adopted this speech pattern in their pronunciation of modern Hebrew. This song reflects that melding of two cultures, two languages interacting with each other to reveal one universal message—that the strength of God and the Jewish people will live on forever.

Kaddish for Black Lives

By Jewish Multiracial Network

Creator of life, source of compassion. Your breath remains the source of our spirit, even as too many of us cry out that we cannot breathe. Lovingly created in your image, the color of our bodies has imperiled our lives.

Black lives are commodified yet devalued, imitated but feared, exhibited but not seen. Black lives have been pursued by hatred, abandoned by indifference and betrayed by complacency.

Black lives have been lost to the violence of the vigilante, the cruelty of the marketplace and the silence of the comfortable.

We understand that Black lives are sacred, inherently valuable, and irreplaceable. We know that to oppress the body of the human is to break the heart of the divine. We yearn for the day when the bent will stand straight.

We pray that the hearts of our country will soften to the pain endured for centuries. We will do the work to bind up the wounds, to heal the shattered hearts, to break the yoke of oppression.

As the beauty of the heavens is revealed to us each day, may each day reveal to us the beauty of our common humanity. Amen.

Narrow Bridge - Lior Ben-Hur

Kol ha-o-lam ku-lo gesher tzar me'od
V'ha-i-kar lo l'fached klal
The whole world is a very narrow bridge;
the important thing is not to be afraid.
-Rabbi Nachman of Bratslav

Ge-sheer tzar, ktzar-tzar me-od
Ve-ha-i-kar lo le-fa-ched klal

See the life, see the life that I'm leading, all this learning is growing and feeding
Just to get by as I get by.
Feel the beauty, beauty's fulfilling, our journeys are merging and meeting
Just to get by as we get by.
Hear my voice, hear my voice as I'm singing, every word and note are reflecting
What's on my mind do you.
We're just crossing by!

Would you hold my hand as we are walking on this narrow bridge?
We won't to be afraid together as the world's spins
We're just crossing by
